

WHITE WATER RAFTING

Every Wednesday (June through August)

AT BRONCO CANYON – LOWER TRUCKEE RIVER

Please, not the Tahoe City float trip but another 15 miles further down stream where terrain gets steeper and river gets funner.

Pin Ball rapid

at the Jaws

Join us on this fun trip departing from most hotels in South Shore Lake Tahoe as we take you 40 miles north to where Boca reservoir water meets the Truckee river, securing good flow through summer regardless the water level in Lake Tahoe.

Lower Truckee White water rafting trip is a fun, 8-mile guided White water adventure, with many Class 2-3 rapids for the first 6 miles and exciting Class 3+ Bronco Canyon rapids Jaws and Pin Ball in the last two miles. The Truckee River passes through the High Sierra desert with cottonwoods lining the banks.

Minimum age is 6.

Don't forget sunscreen, change of clothing, towels, medications, bottled water to keep you hydrated before and after the boat ride and please no flip flops. Sandals, water shoes or tennis shoes are a must. Most common attire on the boat are swim shorts or bathing suits, tea shirts are OK.

The boats are modern state of the art High side, self bailing rafts fitting up to 6 passengers.

While rafting, no luggage is permitted on the boat other than any medical items. All your bags will be left on the bus and will be accessible at the take out.

Package includes deli style lunch with drinks.

Action photos will be available.

Departs at 8:30AM and returns by 4:00PM
